

KAI-SANG WILDERNESS A WINNER

Kai-Sang Wins Handicap

Carries 133 Pounds and Gallops From Start to Finish of Race.

WILDERNESS A WINNER

R. T. Wilson's Colt by Campfire Runs Away From Field of Juveniles.

By HENRY V. KING.

Every week this season racegoers see what they believe is the best three-year-old of the year. Early in the spring all the racing world proclaimed Morvich invincible. Then Harry Payne Whitney's Whiskaway beat Morvich twice and he was heralded as the greatest of the great. Yesterday Harry P. Sinclair's Kai-Sang ran an exceptionally good race in the historic Jerome Handicap at Belmont Park and the thousands of turf followers present handed him the crown of his age. To-day Harry Payne Whitney's Bunting is scheduled to race, and if he runs as his trainer expects him to he would not be surprising to the fickle turf world proclaiming him the king.

Although his two opponents, Athelstan and Brainstorm, are only mediocre horses Kai-Sang raced like a champion. Over a track that was far from being fast and carrying the heavy impost of 133 pounds he ran a mile in the remarkably fast time of 1:37. The time alone would make his performance a great one, but to carry such weight made it doubly great. And what was still more impressive was the way he accomplished his feat. Not once was he allowed to be under wraps and all through the homestretch he was merely galloping. At the judges he was eased up to almost a walk two lengths in front of Athelstan, which came with the stride in the final eighth of a mile. Brainstorm for the second end of the purse.

Kai-Sang Held at 1 to 6.

The Jerome is one of the oldest turf events in the country and until a decade ago always brought a big field to the post. Fifty three-year-olds were nominated but only five were considered good enough to be entered for the night. Of these R. T. Wilson's Pillory and Mrs. Payne Whitney's Galantman were withdrawn because of what was believed to be a heavy handicap. Kai-Sang, Athelstan and Brainstorm as opponents Kai-Sang was considered the sure winner and was made the favorite at the prohibitive odds of 1 to 6.

Mrs. Cassidy had little trouble with the trio at the post and sent them away promptly and aligned. Kai-Sang was the first to show in front, but before the sixteenth of a mile had been run, Fator took a hard hold on him and yanked him into second place behind Brainstorm. Once in command Brainstorm was a real terror, but he was in front only on sufferance. As fast as he was running it was slow for Kai-Sang. Two lengths behind him the Sincilar colt was galloping along with his mouth wide open, fighting to go faster.

Around the bend Brainstorm showed the way. Then, just as he was entering the homestretch Fator gave Kai-Sang his head and the race was as good as over in a few jumps. Kai-Sang bounded to the front, and although Fator never let him down he increased his lead with every stride until he was a world of miles ahead. Brainstorm tried in the final eighth of a mile and Athelstan, which had run well all the way, came along and beat him home.

Richard T. Wilson's Wilderness, the son of Campfire and Genesta, showed that he is far above the ordinary in the final eighth of a mile. He displayed world speed and galloped home far ahead of a good field of juveniles. At the end of the five and a half furlong journey he was galloping, and the front of his head was in the air. He was a real terror, but he was in front only on sufferance. As fast as he was running it was slow for Kai-Sang. Two lengths behind him the Sincilar colt was galloping along with his mouth wide open, fighting to go faster.

Wilderness Steps Past.

Wilderness stepped over the five and a half furlong route in the real good time of 1:05 1-5.

Curtis, one of the fastest breakers in training, shot to the front as soon as the barrier went up and quickly opened up three lengths on the field. Wilderness didn't break very well, but he found his running legs in a hurry and before a sixth of a mile had been covered was in the lead. He was a real terror, but he was in front only on sufferance. As fast as he was running it was slow for Kai-Sang. Two lengths behind him the Sincilar colt was galloping along with his mouth wide open, fighting to go faster.

Probably the worst field of the year went forth to do battle in the first race. There was a claimant for maidens at six furlongs. Of the lot that did start Mrs. S. A. Clifton's So It Goes was much the best and won easily by a length and a half.

Ed Nash brought back his Irish Brigadier took Pirate Gold and Gunglione into camp in the second race. He ran Pirate Gold into submission in the first half mile and then came on to win eased up by five lengths.

Sky Line, belonging to Mrs. C. C. Rumsey, beat a cheap band of juvenile fillies in the third race, but her victory was a lucky one. The race was down the straightaway and at the start Al Davis's grey filly Sequel and Thomas Fortune Ryan's colt were bumped out of the race.

Ed Nash brought back his broad winged Bantry to the races in the fifth event, and the old fellow scored an easy victory. Because of his bad legs Nash had to have much faith in him. He placed a sentimental wager and was rewarded at the odds of 6 to 1. Little Snookums Bell had the leg on the old fellow. He got him away on his toes and kept him in front all the way to win by four lengths.

Between races Grey Lad worked a mile and a quarter in preparation for the Belmont, which will be decided on Saturday. The colt showed that he was in the fettle. He stepped the distance in 1:05 1-5, covering the final furlong in 0:12 2-5.

Joe Ray Wins Mile Race.

At Worcester, Mass., Sept. 5.—Joe Ray, the Illinois mile, was the mile handicapper of the Olympic Club holiday meet here yesterday. Ray, whose opponents were William Sheehy of Boston and Jack Gordon of Princeton, finished in 4 minutes 55 1-5 seconds.

Two American Teams Win In International Polo Play

Orange County Beats All Ireland, 7 to 4; Meadowbrook Holds Eastcott, 9 to 4.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Orange County, N. Y., Sept. 5.—America triumphed twice today in the international open polo championship tournament. In this morning's match Orange County defeated All-Ireland by the score of 7 goals to 4. This afternoon Meadowbrook outplayed the Eastcott team of England, winning by the score of 9 to 4. Both contests were hard played to the finish.

The All-Ireland team showed some of its real form in the game against Orange County. The match no doubt would have been closer were it not for the erratic behavior of the Celtic mounds. In one chukker the fourth, Douglas was obliged to change his mount three times, two of the ponies proving too high spirited.

At times All Ireland had too much speed, and frequently overrode the ball. It was evident their ponies are now acclimated and eating well, and by the time they reach Philadelphia the All Ireland team is sure to make its mark. French at No. 2 played the best polo that he has exhibited since his arrival in the States. He scored five of the goals credited to his team, and all through the chukkers he figured prominently in every play. In the eighth chukker, mounted on his thoroughbred pony, Brown Betty, he gave a brilliant exhibition of polo, and with his mallet scored the final goal of the match. While the game was punctuated by a series of mistakes, there were incidents to thrill a large early morning crowd.

In the third chukker, while Rumsey was making a frantic endeavor to keep the ball away from his team's goal, he gave a brilliant exhibition of polo, and with his mallet scored the final goal of the match. While the game was punctuated by a series of mistakes, there were incidents to thrill a large early morning crowd.

Orange County Off Color.

While Orange County, as a team, did not play the polo which is capable of it was good enough to beat All Ireland today. Harbison was a real star of the match. He scored five of the goals credited to his team, and all through the chukkers he figured prominently in every play. In the eighth chukker, mounted on his thoroughbred pony, Brown Betty, he gave a brilliant exhibition of polo, and with his mallet scored the final goal of the match. Horse Safe Delays Game.

The second match, which brought together Meadow Brook and Eastcott, was delayed by a horse sale at the stables. Once the game was started, however, its thrills soon had the crowd in its meshes.

The first chukker was full of incidents. Major Lockett, back of the Eastcott team, gave an exhibition of his old form, which gave him such distinction in the international matches between England and America. He scored the first goal of the match in three minutes and twenty seconds and was the only one to tally in the first chukker.

After Eastcott had been penalized for a foul which failed to help Meadow Brook, the game was delayed by a horse sale at the stables. Once the game was started, however, its thrills soon had the crowd in its meshes.

Hopping Still Aggressive.

That the injury did not curb any of Hopping's aggressiveness was indicated in the second chukker, when his team was penalized for a flagrant bit of cross riding. Hopping, who scored a beautiful goal on a free drive given by the foul. So daring was the galloping in the third chukker to break this one goal that the referee was obliged to stop the game. Hopping was able to get the ball across the goal line.

Ballymaehane Awarded Blue Ribbons Over Jumps—Wanamaker Horses Win Prizes.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Spectacular jumping by the bunnies, together with clever trick riding by members of the Third United States Cavalry, combined to enliven the second day's program of the Rochester Horse Show at the annual exposition today. The jumping competition, Ballymaehane of Rally Farms earned the blue, with a third Cavalry mount, Geomont, second, and Chatterbox, a fourth, a favorite from Raceway Lodge, Avon, third.

The Wanamaker horses are scoring heavily in every event they appear in and are regarded as among the strongest features of the show. Mrs. Louisa Long Combs, driving her Revelation, captured first against a lively field of competitors in the driving event. Her horse, a favorite from the Wanamaker Stable, was a close rival. The awards:
